COMEDY

EXACT CHANGE

A man walks into a restaurant with a full-grown ostrich behind him. The waitress asks them for their orders.

The man says, "A hamburger, fries, and a coke," and turns to the ostrich "what's yours?"

"I'll have the," says the ostrich.

A short time later the waitress returns with the order. "That will be $9.40 please," and the man reaches into his pocket and pulls out the exact change for payment.

The next day, the man and ostrich come again and the ma says, "A hamburger, fries, and a coke."

The Ostrich says, "I'll have the same."

Again the man reaches into his pocket and pays with exact change.

This becomes routine until the two enter again. "The usual?" asks the waitress.

"No, this is Friday night, so I will have a steak, baked potato and a salad," says the man.

"Same," says the ostrich.

Shortly the waitress brings the order and says, "That will be $32.62."

Once again the man pulls the exact change out of his pocket and places it on the table.

The waitress cannot hold back here curiosity any longer. "Excuse me, sir. How do you manage to always come up with the exact change in your pocket every time?"

"Well," says the man, "several years ago, I was cleaning the attic and found an old lamp. When I rubbed it, a Genie appeared and offered me two wishes. My first wish was that if I ever had to pay for anything, I would just put my hand in my pocket and the right amount of money would always be there."

"That's right. Whether it's a gallon of milk or a Rolls Royce, the exact money is always there," says the man.

The waitress asks, "What's with the ostrich?"

The man sighs, pauses and answers, "My second wish was for a tall chick with a big butt and long legs who agrees with everything I say."

GREAT ADVICE AND IT WAS GRACIOUSLY PASSED ALONG--FREE!!!!!!

Not a Joke!! If you dislike attorneys.....You will love them for these tips.

Read this and make a copy for your files in case you need to refer to it someday... Maybe we should all take some of his advice! A corporate attorney sent the following out to the employees in his company.

- 1. Do not sign the back of your credit cards. Instead, put PHOTO ID required.
- 2. When you are writing checks to pay on your credit card accounts, DO NOT put the complete account number of the FOR line. Instead just put the last four numbers. The Credit Card company knows the rest of the number, and anyone who might be handling your check as it passes through all the check processing channels won't have access to it.
- 3. Put your work phone # on your checks instead of your home phone. if you have a PO Box use that instead of your home address. If you do not have PO Box, use your work address. Never have your SS# printed on your checks.. You can add it if it is necessary. But if you have it printed, anyone can get it.
- 4. Place the contents of your wallet on a photocopy machine. Do both sides of each license, credit card, etc. You will know what you had in your wallet and all of the account numbers and phone numbers to call and cancel. Keep the photocopy in a safe place.

I also carry a photocopy of my passport when I travel either here or abroad. We've all heard horror stories about fraud that's committed on us in stealing a Name, Address, Social Security Number, Credit Cards, etc.

Unfortunately, I, an attorney, have first hand knowledge because my wallet was stolen last month. Within a week, the thieves(s) ordered an expensive monthly cell phone package, applied for a VISA Credit Card, had a credit line approved to buy a Gateway Computer, received a PIN number from DMV to change my driving record information online, and more.

But here's some critical information to limit the damage in case this happens to you or someone you know:

- 5. We have been told we should cancel our credit cards immediately. But, the key is having the toll free numbers and your card numbers handy so you know whom to call... Keep those where you can find them.

- 6. File a Police Report immediately in the jurisdiction where your credit cards, etc., were stolen. This proves to credit providers you were diligent, and this is a first step toward an investigation (if there ever is one).

But here's what is perhaps most important of all: (I never even thought to do this.)

- 7. Call the 3 National Credit Reporting Organizations immediately to place a fraud alert on your name and also call the Social Security Fraud Line Number. I had never heard of doing that until advised by a bank that called to tell me an application for credit was made over the internet in my name.

This alert means any company that checks your credit knows your information was stolen and they have to contact you by phone to authorize new credit.

By the time I was advised to do this, almost two weeks after the theft, all the damage, had been done. There are records of all the credit checks initiated by the thief's purchases, none of which I knew about before placing the alert. Since then, no additional damage has been done, and the thieves threw my wallet away this weekend (someone turned it in). It seems to have stopped them dead in their tracks.

Now, here are the numbers you always need to contact about your wallet, if it has been stolen:

- |  |                       |
|--|-----------------------|
| 1.) Equifax                                       | 1-800-525-6285 |
| 2.) Experian (formerly TRW)                       | 1-888-397-3742 |
| 3.) Trans Union                                   | 1-800-680-7289 |
| 4.) Social SecurityAdministration Fraud Line | 1-800-269-0271 |

We pass along jokes on the Internet: we pass along just about everything. If you are willing to pass this information along, it could really help someone you care about.
